The Conservatory of Music and Drama at Dublin Institute of Technology (DIT), in collaboration with DIT Library, is looking to host an experienced researcher via funding through Marie Skłodowska-Curie Individual Fellowships. In order to secure funding, the experienced researcher must develop a proposal with the host for the September 12th 2018 deadline.

DIT Conservatory of Music and Drama is home to 'The Research Foundation for Music in Ireland' (www.musicresearch.ie), which promotes the dynamic musical life of Ireland, manifested in performance, musicology, pedagogy, and composition.

Project idea and researcher opportunities

Research Field: Social and Human Sciences SOC

The Derek Bell Collection, the classical music library of one of Ireland's most renowned and unique musicians, was donated to DIT in late 2015. The project will examine and scope the Collection, focusing on maximising its global accessibility and impact. The researcher will engage with other scholars within the Research Foundation for Music in Ireland and will receive appropriate training in music and library research and archiving skills.

Researcher Requirements

- The researcher must fulfil the MSCA-IF mobility and experienced researcher requirements.<sup>1</sup>
- A PhD or equivalent in music
- A postgraduate qualification in library and information studies or equivalent
- Research experience in the area of music archives, music cataloguing and/or music documentation
- Evidence of a strong track record in research dissemination in multiple formats
- Excellent information technology skills including digitisation, web content management, and social networking platforms
- Excellent organisational and communication skills (verbal and written)
